About Us

As we all know the SEGA has come at one respected level in the industry. Myself wants to thank all of you for the said reason.

The beautiful journey indeed would not have been completed without your support.

Many future plans yet to come, in that contest we are launching 1200x600 mm Quantum series in double charge which will help us to have good product range.

There will be also phase wise transition in SEGA, let it be in form of product development, process development or in the form of brand development. It will require your support to make this transition successful.

All business partners are precious stones for SEGA and we promise you to fulfill rational quality and service which is demanded by the market.

Hope in coming years we will be cruising towards some valuable landmarks.

Thanking you
D.M. Patel
